

Scotland's Redress Scheme

Application form Part 3

For individually assessed payment applicants

Table of contents

|                                           |         |
|-------------------------------------------|---------|
| Section 1: Personal details               | page 2  |
| Section 2: Your statement of abuse        | page 3  |
| Section 3: Supporting documents           | page 12 |
| Section 4: Declaration and privacy notice | page 13 |
| Next steps                                | page 14 |

Section 1: Personal details

This information will be used to join together Part 1 and Part 3 of your application forms.

Name

Winifred Devers

Date of birth

Day

26

Month

05

Year

1960

The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Howden hall Centre – Edinburgh

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1974 - 1974

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

When I was about fourteen years old, I was moved to a convent, and that period of my life has stayed with me ever since. One of the members of staff there was a large, intimidating woman who regularly beat me. Her presence alone filled me with fear, and I never felt safe around her. At night, we slept in dormitories, and I was so terrified of what might happen that I used to drag the wardrobe in front of the door just to create some sense of protection. It was the only way I could convince myself that I might be safe until morning. Even now, as an adult, I can still remember the sound of the wardrobe scraping across the floor and the feeling of desperation that came with it. She didn't just hurt me physically; she verbally abused me as well. She singled me out constantly, as if she had chosen me to be the target of her anger. She would scream in my face in front of all the other children, humiliating me and making me feel completely powerless. I remember the heat of her breath, the volume of her voice, and the way the other children would stare at me, unsure whether to look away or watch. Those moments made me feel small, exposed, and utterly alone. The emotional impact of that treatment has followed me throughout my life. It shaped the way I saw myself, the way I trusted others, and the way I learned to navigate the world. Even now, I can still feel the echoes of that fear and shame.

On top of the abuse from staff, I was also bullied by other students. What made it worse was that the teachers didn't just ignore it—they often turned a blind eye deliberately, and at times even encouraged the children to hit me or fight with me. There were moments when it felt like the adults who were supposed to protect me were instead giving permission for others to hurt me. I remember standing in the playground or the corridors, surrounded by children who had been emboldened by the teachers' silence or approval. They would push me, hit me, or taunt me, and I knew that if I tried to defend myself or ask for help, nothing would change. In fact, it often made things worse.

The teachers' behaviour created an environment where I felt completely unprotected. They made other students beat me up, and I had no one to turn to. I learned to brace myself for the next blow, the next insult, the next moment of humiliation. I learned to stay quiet, to shrink into myself, and to hope that if I didn't draw attention, maybe I would be spared. But I rarely was. These experiences have had a lasting impact on my life. They shaped my sense of safety, my confidence, and my understanding of how people can misuse power. They taught me what it feels like to be isolated and targeted, and they left emotional scars that I have carried into adulthood. Speaking about these events is difficult, but it is also important. They are part of my history, part of what I survived, and part of what has influenced the person I have become.

Your statement for Care setting 2

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Convent of the Good Shepherd, Colinton.

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1974 - 1976

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

When I was about fourteen years old, I was moved to a convent, and that period of my life has stayed with me ever since. One of the members of staff there was a large, intimidating woman who regularly beat me. Her presence alone filled me with fear, and I never felt safe around her. At night, we slept in dormitories, and I was so terrified of what might happen that I used to drag the wardrobe in front of the door just to create some sense of protection. It was the only way I could convince myself that I might be safe until morning. Even now, as an adult, I can still remember the sound of the wardrobe scraping across the floor and the feeling of desperation that came with it. She didn't just hurt me physically; she verbally abused me as well. She singled me out constantly, as if she had chosen me to be the target of her anger. She would scream in my face in front of all the other children, humiliating me and making me feel completely powerless. I remember the heat of her breath, the volume of her voice, and the way the other children would stare at me, unsure whether to look away or watch. Those moments made me feel small, exposed, and utterly alone. The emotional impact of that treatment has followed me throughout my life. It shaped the way I saw myself, the way I trusted others, and the way I learned to navigate the world. Even now, I can still feel the echoes of that fear and shame.

On top of the abuse from staff, I was also bullied by other students. What made it worse was that the teachers didn't just ignore it—they often turned a blind eye deliberately, and at times even encouraged the children to hit me or fight with me. There were moments when it felt like the adults who were supposed to protect me were instead giving permission for others to hurt me. I remember standing in the playground or the corridors, surrounded by children who had been emboldened by the teachers' silence or approval. They would push me, hit me, or taunt me, and I knew that if I tried to defend myself or ask for help, nothing would change. In fact, it often made things worse.

The teachers' behaviour created an environment where I felt completely unprotected. They made other students beat me up, and I had no one to turn to. I learned to brace myself for the next blow, the next insult, the next moment of humiliation. I learned to stay quiet, to shrink into myself, and to hope that if I didn't draw attention, maybe I would be spared. But I rarely was. These experiences have had a lasting impact on my life. They shaped my sense of safety, my confidence, and my understanding of how people can misuse power. They taught me what it feels like to be isolated and targeted, and they left emotional scars that I have carried into adulthood. Speaking about these events is difficult, but it is also important. They are part of my history, part of what I survived, and part of what has influenced the person I have become.

Your statement for Care setting 3

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?
For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?
For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

Your statement for Care setting 4

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?
For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?
For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

Do you want help
with this section?

If you want help before sending in the form, you can:

- read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance
- contact a case worker

The next section has questions about your supporting documents.

Section 3: Supporting documents

Please provide any supporting documents you have related to your abuse in care.

You can find out more about these types of documents on page 33 of the “Help to apply” guidance.

In some cases, it may be difficult to find supporting documents. To help with this part of the application, you can:

- include supporting documents when you send this part of the form, if you already have them
- send in your form without any supporting documents – your case worker will get in touch with you and have a conversation about what you can provide

Please tick which option you have chosen:

- ☐ I am including supporting documents with my form
- ☐ I am not including supporting documents
(if you tick this, a case worker will contact you)
- ☒ I am collecting my documents and will submit them a later date

Do you want help
with this section?

If you want help before sending in the form, you can:

- read page 33 of the “Help to apply” guidance
- contact a case worker

The next section has a declaration you must sign and details about how your information is kept and shared.

Section 4: Declaration and privacy notice

In this section, you must sign your form.

For information about how Scotland's Redress Scheme will record and protect your personal information, please read the Privacy Notice for Scotland's Redress Scheme. You can find this on mygov.scot/redress.

Before you send your application you must agree to these statements:

I confirm that the details and information I have given in this application form are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I understand that I must notify Scotland's Redress Scheme of changes in my circumstances that may affect my application.

I confirm that if any of the information I gave in Part 1, Section 8 (related to previous payments and convictions) changes, I must let my case worker know.

I confirm that any documents I have provided in support of my application are genuine and any copy is a true copy of the original. I understand that if I provide a document which is not genuine, I may be subject to court proceedings.

I understand that if I give false or misleading information in support of my application or make a fraudulent application I may:

- be subject to court proceedings
- have to re-pay any money I was not entitled to

I confirm I have read and understood the Privacy Notice for Scotland's Redress Scheme which explains how the information I provide will be lawfully used and stored.

Your signature

Date

24/03/2026

Next steps

This is the end of Part 3. You do not need to submit your forms all at once. Once you are ready, you can submit your forms by email.

Afterwards, a case worker will contact you to confirm:

- they have received your application
- if they have any follow up questions
- next steps

By email

Please submit your application and any relevant documents to:

apply@redress-scheme.scot

If you would like to contact a case worker

Please use these details to contact a case worker:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm
(except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot