I was just a child. Five, maybe six years old. I was placed into foster care because I needed protection, because I needed safety, because I needed love. Instead, what I received was abuse at the hands of the very people who were supposed to care for me.

Both of my foster parents physically abused me.

I was attacked with items from around the house. I was a tiny, defenceless child and I was being hurt in my own home, the place that was supposed to be my sanctuary. I had nowhere to run. I had nobody to call for help. I was completely and utterly alone.

They starved me. They denied me food like I wasn't even worth feeding. They locked me in a room by myself with no access to a bathroom, forcing me to urinate in my own space.

I was made to feel worthless, subhuman, like I didn't matter at all. Because to them, I didn't.

This wasn't a one time event. This was my life. Day after day, the abuse continued. I woke up every morning in fear. I lived every single day of my childhood in that house terrified, hungry, humiliated and in pain. No child should ever have to experience what I went through.

I am now an adult and I am still living with what was done to me. The trauma never went away. It followed me out of that house and into every single part of my life. I battle PTSD every day. I live with crippling anxiety. My mental health has been devastated by what those people did to me when I was too small and too scared to fight back.

I did not deserve what happened to me. No child does. I was let down by the people who were supposed to protect me, and I have spent my entire adult life trying to survive the consequences of that failure.

I am still trying. Every single day, I am still trying.
