I was beaten and brutalized by the very people who were supposed to care for me in those care homes. Staff members abused me again and again, and I was just a child with nowhere to run, no one to protect me. They restrained me with such force that they injured me, and I screamed and cried but no one came to save me. I was trapped in my own nightmare, feeling the pain in my body and the terror in my heart, knowing that tomorrow they might do it again.

205 Craigmillar Castle Avenue, EH16 4DZ

When I was so young and innocent, a neighbor sexually assaulted me. He destroyed something sacred inside me that I can never get back. The horror of those moments - the fear, the violation, the sickening realization of what was happening to my small body - it's burned into my soul. I was just a child. I didn't understand. I couldn't fight back. And afterward, I felt dirty, broken, like somehow it was my fault even though I know now it wasn't.

The abuse has completely devastated my adult life. I wake up every morning drowning in anxiety, my chest tight, my mind racing with panic about things that haven't even happened yet. The PTSD controls me the flashbacks rip me back to those moments of pure terror, the nightmares jolt me awake drenched in sweat and crying. I can't trust anyone. I can't feel safe anywhere. My mental health is in pieces, shattered by the cruelty of people who should have protected me. I'm exhausted from carrying this unbearable weight every single day, tired of fighting just to exist, just to breathe. Sometimes I wonder if I'll ever feel whole again, or if those monsters took that possibility away from me forever.
