DETAIL RECORD
(For specified incidents or agreed cases)

Client Name : Andrew Jones

Ref Number : _____

Date	October '86 to Jan. 1988	Event	Summary of Work
-------------	-----------------------------	--------------	-----------------

As can be seen from review reports many unsuccessful attempts were made to see Andrew in order to assess with him the value or otherwise of retaining parental rights.

Prior to the 6 monthly review in May 1987, Andrew requested help with finding independent accommodation and between May 1987 and January 1988. The Family Helper was very involved with helping to find accommodation and set Andrew up for independent living (see review Report of December 1987). Andrew has been offered further support, following termination of Parental Rights Resolution on 15.1.88 (see letter).

Final Comments:-

Andrew presents as a very pleasant and friendly enough boy. He has found it very difficult to build up any relationship with any social worker and indeed quietly goes his own way regardless.

He seems to keep out of trouble with the police, maintains regular contact with his mother and sisters, but seems unable to find the self-discipline required for holding down work.
