F. REASON FOR DECISION

CHILD'S NAME William Toibett

DATE OF BIRTH 9/7/91

The Children's Hearing made the decision(s) for the following reasons:

The Hearing decided to renew the Supervision Requirement retaining the existing conditions, and adding a condition to allow intermediary visits and stays with potential long term carers. The reasons were:

- William's Mum cannot provide a suitable home for him. She is said to be happy with Social Work Department's long term plans for William's care.
- William is settled with Mr. & Mrs. [REDACTED] and is happy. The long term aim is to find permanent carers for William. He is looking forward to this coming about.
- Monthly contact with his Mum and Dad should continue, but needs to be supervised ~~because~~ to ensure the quality of these contacts. William wants to keep in contact with his Mum and Dad, and his brothers and sisters.

William was present at the Hearing to give his views and take part in the discussions.
