Not to appoint a Safeguarder.
To continue Supervision Requirement Unvaried

Reason for continuation of hearing (select one main reason)

- | | | | |
|---|--------------------------|--|--------------------------|
| Child or other key person absent | ☐ | Further information required outwith s69 | ☐ |
| Child absent and warrant issued | ☐ | Further investigation, s69(2), no requirement | ☐ |
| Safeguarder's report | ☐ | Further investigation, s69(2), with requirement s69(3) | ☐ |
| Transfer to hearing for different local authority | ☐ | Other (provide brief details) | ☐ |

Reasons for Decision(s)

The Panel decided to continue compulsory Supervision Order as although William has done extremely well lately to have the incentive of his trip to play football in U.S.A. Dad mentioned that he believed there was no reason that William should be under supervision although he raised no objections at final decision.

William's contact with his parents may include overnight stays if approved by Social Work Dept.
