Dear Sir/Madam

Our Client: Mr George Langan

We are writing to you in relation to the aforementioned client and reference.

We submitted a Data Subject Access Request on 9th June 2026, together with a Letter of Authority and received an Acknowledgement email/letter from you on 12th June 2026.

Since the date of your acknowledgement, a further 28 days have now passed and we have not received a response or any formal request for a further extension of time.

As a gesture of goodwill, and in an attempt to negate the need for a formal complaint being issued to the Information Commissioner's Office, we would grant a further 14 days from the date of this correspondence for documents to be provided or a formal extension request to be made.

For ease, we would be grateful if you can provide all requested information electronically to evidence@mmalegal.co.uk

Should we not receive the requested information or communication from you requesting a further extension of time, we will be issuing a complaint to the ICO without further notice.

We trust this will not be necessary and look forward to receiving the requested information without further delay.

Yours Faithfully

Leah Pearson
