Diagnosis: Normal ocular examination when first reviewed in January, 2013
Failed to attend clinic appointment September, 2014.

I have not arranged to send any further appointment at this stage as I see from my clinic notes that I had considered discharge from routine follow up when I last saw her in January, 2013.

I assume that there are no ongoing problems and have not arranged to send any further appointments for review. Should there be any problems in the future I should be grateful if you would please re-refer this patient.

Yours faithfully,
