Diagnosis: A few non-specific missed points on field testing but no significant field loss noted.
Normal ocular examination.

Thank you for referring Mrs Margery who was noted to have a bi-nasal field defect when undergoing routine screening at her own opticians. Humphrey 24/2 field testing today showed a few missed points in both eyes, though field test responses were not particularly reliable.

I have explained that there is often a learning curve to field testing and feel that her field responses are likely to improve if we were to repeat the test.

I have arranged review in six months but would anticipate that we should be able to consider discharge at the next visit.

Yours sincerely
