In accordance with the Medway NHS Trust waiting list policy and in line with the Government's 18 Week Patient Care Pathway, we are currently reviewing our waiting list. In line with this, the above patient, who has been suspended for a period exceeding 3 months due to Social or Medical circumstances, has been removed from the waiting list and returned to your care.

Should you deem the patient fit for surgery at a later date they should be referred to the Consultant again for a reviewed care plan. This should be clearly marked on the referral letter.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Yours sincerely
