Dear Miss Margery,

25 FEB 1990

Sorry to learn that your cycle of ICSI was unsuccessful. You did have sufficient stimulation but only very few follicles resulted and there was only one egg collected which was not fertilised. We feel therefore that you should not proceed with another cycle of treatment but should seek egg donation in the future. I'm aware that this news will be disappointing to you but I feel it is the best way forward.

Yours sincerely,

agly
