

This request was refused and the headmaster was instructed to escort them back to school.

21. Feb.

No action was taken by the Govt.

23. Feb.

The headmaster spoke to the Chairman of Church Women's Guild, Bridge of Allan.

24. Feb.

The headmaster spoke to the in-service course at Langside College on 'Observation & Communication'.

13th Feb.

The headmaster attended a committee meeting at Jordanhill College to plan a day conference in June.

24. Feb.

The headmaster spoke to Falkirk Rowing Club on the work at Bell Busk.

1st February.

16th Feb.

Mr. John Harris, the Edinburgh Reporter for the Central Region visited the school.

4th Feb.

14th Feb.

Headmaster attended a meeting in the Church Office to discuss future arrangements for the German exchange.

14th Feb.

A group of twelve teenagers from West Lothian Parish Church visited the school.

6th Feb.

21st Feb.

Mr. J. G. Cocker attended a meeting of the West Lothian East & West schools training group.

22nd Feb.

Mrs. Reynolds, a student on the special education course at Jordanhill came to stay in the school for three days.

11th Feb.

The headmaster spoke to Williams &

Church Women's Guild on 'The Future of East & West Schools'.

£175 was taken from the school welfare fund to purchase two loads of hay for Mr. Jamieson. As the action of David Robertson had destroyed the supply of hay it was felt the school has a responsibility to replace it.

The headmaster visited Kildare Independent living unit in Stirling.

A very successful disco was held in the school. Local girls and shaver girls schools attended.

The headmaster opened the West Lothian Scottish Caravan Club Rally at the school.

Thirty-one caravans came to the rally.

Finance Committee meeting 10.30 am. Chairman: Dr. D. Roy, President Mrs. J. Gray & Mrs. M. M.

Local Committee meeting 4.30 pm. Chairman: Miss Helen Jamieson

Wegman 19.2.85

Four members of the Kildare Independent Living Project, Stirling visited the school.

Mrs. D. Denholm and the headmaster visited Mrs. Maggie Barber-Fleming, a member of the child care staff, to express our