

Client Copy

HQ 4

CLIENTS NAME: ANDREWS Catherine
40 MARKIE

SHEET No. _____

5/7/72	Mrs Markie, Mrs. Khan and the three children visited office. Mrs. Andrews has left the children with her mother - Mr. or Mrs. Andrews are separated. Application for children's care completed and Foster Parent allowance paid to Mrs. Markie. Mrs. Khan is residing with her mother temporarily. JDL.
7/7/72	Visited home. Above 5 all present. Home conditions poor and untidy - although normal for such circumstances. Children - relatively dirty and wearing shabby clothing. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Mr Andrews is expected home tonight so until his attitude has been ascertained Mrs M's application for a larger house is to be postponed.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Mr A & Mr Bradley RSPCC had called and agreed to arrangement problem. If possible then husband shall take her.

Spoke with Mr Bradley post-v.s.v.

13/7/72. Office visit - Mr Andrews informed me of the above arrangement. Mr A has filed for divorce & asked for custody of the children. Mr A's pay has now been seen. Phoned his work and arranged accordingly.

25/7/72. H/V. Position unchanged, [REDACTED] was staying with Mrs. Maize pro tem.

26/7/72. Arrangement same completed.

Client Copy

Client Copy

HQ 4

CLIENTS NAME: AndrewsSHEET No. 1

23/2/73	Grandmother + Helen - office visit. Daughter had left Isle St. 2 weeks previously with her baby daughter. G/mother had been looking after the two eldest children since, without financial assistance. She was granted two weeks allowance, pending my finding the father or mother to find out their attitude towards their children. MISS considers the children abandoned & won't give any assistance. Plan - to trace the father or mother & get them to claim F15 for the children IAL
2/3/73.	Visited paid address of Mrs A. left card asking her to call me. IAL
3/3/73	Office visit by Mrs Mrs Rice. They haven't seen Mrs A. for weeks. She cohabits with their son Brian. Both left home without trace owing Mr R rent etc. Mrs A is waiting

7/3/73 Home visit - Mrs Markie. She had met her daughter in the street & challenged her about the children. Mrs M. denied all responsibility for them, saying that she leaves them to her husband. She is cohabiting with [REDACTED]. Her husband is now living [REDACTED].

Mrs Markie received a cheque for £16.30 this morning & needs no financial assistance at present. She will contact us next week.

The house was extremely untidy with dirty dishes & pots everywhere. David was at school, Helen at home. Mrs M manages alright at the moment but sometimes David is cheeky. IAL

9/3/73 Home visit - Mr Andrews. He is now employed in Tay Textiles on night shift, earning a basic wage of £14 per week. He intends to go down to Mrs Markie on Friday 16th with some money. He has a form to apply for a Corporation house and hopes to have the children back. Asked if he thought he could manage to look after 2 children he said that he would [REDACTED].

Client Copy

Client Copy

HQ 4

CLIENTS NAME: AndrewsSHEET No. 2.

7/2/73	Mr Andrews' mother asked that I don't tell his wife or mother in-law where he was working as they had peppered him before for money at his work, causing him to lose his job. Divorce proceedings are being instituted. This family is known to Mr Bradley RSPCA.
19/3/73	Office visit from Mrs Markie - Mr Andrews had not given her maintenance money on Friday as requested. She had enough money to last till tomorrow. In the meantime I would visit Mr A. to find out what had happened.
Kate	Home visit - Mr Andrews was babysitting to Kelly. He had not been to work on Fri & therefore, had not collected his wages. I had first called at his mother who said that he had left his work & owed her money. He had told her that he had paid Mrs Markie £4. I mentioned this conversation but Mr A some aggression towards his wife, blaming her for abandoning the children. I asked him to keep in touch

Later. Phone call - Tony Toxiles - Mrs A. is still employed there, although he has only worked two nights on his first week & three in the second week

1A2

20-3-73 Phone call from Mrs A. - he has had second thoughts & would like his children taken into care until he could find somewhere to stay. I asked him to call at the office this afternoon.

Later. I met Mrs Markie in Lido St on her way to collect David from school. Her daughter had called on her yesterday expressing her intention to get a house & have the children back since she had custody of them according to the divorce papers. I assured her that she would receive a cheque for maintenance of the children.

1A1

Client Copy

Client Copy

HQ 4

CLIENTS NAME: Mr. [REDACTED]

SHEET No. 3

20.3.72 - [REDACTED] [REDACTED] would threaten them when they were young. Mrs. [REDACTED] was very unhappy, and she blamed her daughter for this state of affairs. I asked her to ask her daughter to call at the office this afternoon and discuss her intentions for her children.

Later [REDACTED] [REDACTED] - Mrs. [REDACTED] accompanied by [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. He explained why she had to leave Pettit St. The Police refused to prosecute the [REDACTED] relatives. They were trying to get a house, had been round all the private factors. He intended to have all the children back but didn't think that [REDACTED] could be separated from her grandmother. [REDACTED] was ambivalent to his attitude to the children, saying at one time that he would be happy to take David & Sharon if it was true that he & his [REDACTED] would be pleased to have the children. [REDACTED]