Minutes of Case Conference held at Carolina House on Friday,
2nd April, 1982, at 3.30 p.m.

Re: Planned admission on 5th February, 1982.

Present: Mr F. Cura, A.A.C., Area 2, Chairman.
Mr G. McIntosh, S.W., Area 2.
Mr H. Tosh, Dep. O.I.C., Carolina House.
[redacted] Team Member, Carolina House.
[redacted] d, Team Member, Carolina House.

Lisa Tarbett, d.o.b. 7.8.74

The writer would first apologise for the lateness of this Minute. Arrangements for [redacted] and Lisa's Case Conference had been made for several earlier dates, but on each occasion these had required to be cancelled for a variety of valid reasons.

[redacted] and Lisa (?) are the youngest children of a family of five. The Tarbett family have been known to the Social Work Department since 1969. The parents have separated on numerous occasions and have received repeated warnings from the Social Work Department, R.S.S.P.C.C. and Police re leaving the children unattended, possible physical abuse, etc.. At this point in time, all five children are in various establishments, Mr Tarbett is living with the paternal grandparents at Drumlanrig Drive, Dundee, and Mrs Tarbett is believed to be in the London area.

On 9th September, 1981, Mr Tarbett approached Area 2 staff (at the Sub-Office) and requested all five children be received into care. He was, at that time, advised as to the seriousness of his request and asked to give the matter further consideration. On 14th September, 1981, Mr Tarbett again called at Area 2 Sub-Office and requested his children be received into care. He alleged that he was "unwilling and unable to cope". On that date, all five children were placed in Burnside House under the terms of Section 15.

A Children's Hearing held on 23rd December, 1981, passed the situation (alluding to [redacted] and Lisa being under age) to Dundee Sheriff Court for proof. At the Sheriff Court on 21st January, 1982, proof was substantiated (Mr Tarbett did not deny any of the 10 charges re lack of parental care). A further Children's Hearing held on 3rd February, 1982, made both [redacted] and Lisa subject to Supervision Requirement 44 (1)(b) Social Work (Scotland) Act, 1968, and Carolina House was specified as their place of residence.

Both [redacted] and Lisa were quick "to settle in" at Carolina House, the latter, if anything, more quickly than the former.

[redacted]. In general, both children now relate well with the other residents, although Lisa often plays the role of "stirrer", then quietly disappears. On occasion, Lisa can be "huffy" with staff, said to be a favourite ploy of her "attention seeking". [redacted]

Both children can be affectionate - on occasion to the extreme.

Contact between children and father is, at the moment, on a fairly regular basis. Mr Tarbett normally visits Carolina House on Sundays. He spends most of his visiting time viewing television, and on occasion has been known to fall asleep. Although, initially, both Lisa and [REDACTED] accepted father's behaviour and, to some extent, retaliated in a likewise fashion, this past few weeks has seen them look forward to his visits. Mr Tarbett is still guilty of making promises to the children and failing to keep them. During his visits, Mr Tarbett makes no attempt to approach Residential Staff. [REDACTED]

School and health raise few problems for [REDACTED] and Lisa.

Mr McIntosh has regular contact with both children at Carolina House. Any relationship he has with [REDACTED] and Lisa is, in Mr McIntosh's opinion, only a superficial one. Mr Tarbett has, throughout the years, tended to make his family view Social Workers with suspicion, to say the least. Mr McIntosh's contact with Mr Tarbett has "eased off" in recent weeks. This is attributed mainly to the latter "not getting his own way" in relation to the children.

In an effort to protect the children (all five) on a long term basis, Mr McIntosh mooted the possibility of Parental Rights being discussed at Area level. In view of Mr Tarbett's normal mode of disruptive behaviour, it was felt that a "fostering base" be left meantime.

Recommendations

1. [REDACTED] and Lisa continue to reside at Carolina House.
2. Possible Parental Rights (alluding to all five children) be discussed at Area level.
3. Contact between Lisa, [REDACTED] / Mr Tarbett be encouraged but closely monitored.
4. There be ongoing liaison between Mr McIntosh and Residential Staff.
5. The children next be Reviewed at Carolina House on 26th August, 1982, at 3.30 p.m.

responsible adult was in the house at the time. This adult turned out to be [REDACTED] ex resident of Carolina House. [REDACTED]

I explained to Lisa that we were most concerned about the situation and therefore we would wish [REDACTED] to be monitored over the weekend.

Helen would take Lisa and [REDACTED] home and stay with them until [REDACTED] bedtime. Monitoring of situation would also take place from Carolina House worker and OOHS.

This level of monitoring was felt necessary given that all the people involved are known to be very vulnerable and further use of drugs suspected.

23.00. [REDACTED] phoned. She went to Lisa's house to check that all was okay. No answer.

[REDACTED] located at [REDACTED]'s house, who thinks that Lisa and [REDACTED] may have gone out. Helen to visit Lisa again tomorrow morning and update OOHS. Helen did not express immediate concerns about Danielle in the care of [REDACTED] who appeared fit and able.

[REDACTED]

20.15. Phone call from [REDACTED] Resource Worker, Carolina House. She has just returned from a visit to Lisa and [REDACTED] and both of them are fine.

[REDACTED] Lisa is suffering from no adverse effects from her drug taking yesterday and has told resource workers that she understands that she must not repeat the experience for her own well-being but mostly to safeguard her daughter's health and well-being.

[REDACTED]

22.15. Visit to 28 Dura St by Sandra Murray, SW OOHS with [REDACTED], RW Carolina House. [REDACTED] asleep in bed (not seen), Lisa up alone. She presented as a confident, sensible young woman but appeared tired. She was aware of risks to [REDACTED] from taking of drugs by both herself and her partner. DETAIL RECORD

(For specified incidents or agreed cases)

Client Name: Lisa Tarbett

Date: Event:

19.09.91 Telephone call from Lisa.

5 pm - Collected Lisa from work following a telephone call. Lisa advised me she is presently unhappy with her present placement and feels she cannot continue to reside with [REDACTED]. Lisa has discussed this with [REDACTED] from Carolina House and an offer of a flat is available.

According to Lisa, the situation has gradually deteriorated, especially since her toe operation. She feels [REDACTED] is continually nagging her and expecting chores to be done very quickly. [REDACTED] is also continually saying Lisa is lazy. Despite how Lisa feels about the placement, she is quite certain she wished "the ending" to be amicable and contact with the [REDACTED] to continue as she recognises there has been a positive side to the placement.

Discussed the situation with [REDACTED] at Carolina House. She advise that Carolina have a flat available from October which Lisa could move into. Carolina staff are willing to support Lisa and help with budgeting etc, before Lisa finally feels she is ready to move to a flat of her own. Lisa keen to accept this offer and agreed she would continue in her present placement until this can be fully discussed with [REDACTED] a long with Liz May (Mainstay) and myself.

[REDACTED]

23.09.91 Meeting with Lisa, [REDACTED] Liz May (Mainstay), Joyce Gall, Social Worker.

Since the meeting with Liz on 20 September 1991. Lisa and the [REDACTED] have discussed the situation openly. It would appear that lack of communication has been a difficulty and whilst Lisa was at home following her toe operation, this was highlighted. She had felt quite lonely during this period and felt [REDACTED] were not at home and perhaps avoiding her. According to [REDACTED] the family lead a busy life as both she and [REDACTED] work shifts on a full-time basis. When Lisa is working, she is regularly out herself and did not notice the family were not at home. As regards expecting Lisa to complete her chores quickly, [REDACTED] stated this is her way and she expects everyone to follow suit. She also feels Lisa has been cheeky and will not apologise when [REDACTED] feels it appropriate to do so.

[REDACTED] is accepting Lisa has opted to move to independent living and is willing to support her in this decision. The family are agreeable to maintaining contact with Lisa once she leaves, 18 October 1991 has been agreed as the end of placement.
