Good morning,

Thank you for your previous email; we note its contents.

We have sent a further Subject Access Request in relation to our client due to not providing further information that would be relevant to locate his childcare records.

That being his parents' names and his address prior to care.

Could you kindly search again for our clients' records, using the additional information that we have provided within our new request.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James
