

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

193

APRIL 1982

At the March meeting members were informed that the school would break up on Friday, 2nd April for a fortnight's Easter holiday. The school reopened on Sunday, 18th April and four girls are under going extra care for failing to return and for acts of anti-social behaviour whilst at home, contrary to school expectations. We are full, with a complement of 25 girls on the roll. Frances Gordon and [redacted] are at home for a trial period prior to their Hearings [redacted]
