Good morning,

Could you kindly provide us with an update as to your current position in providing us with our client's records.

We note that we have just sent an additional dsar this morning which we would like you to disregard as we submitted one on the 20th of April 2026 to which had been acknowledged.

It is now nearly 4 months since our initial request to which we have not been in receipt of a request for a further extension, nor a full response.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James

Subject: Confirmation of Your Subject Access Request (SAR)

Dear MMA Legal,

Reference: SAR839917371 (Ref: 100001)

Date of request: 21/05/2026 12:36:48

Response deadline: 18/06/2026

Thank you for your Subject Access Request which we have now started to process. We will let you know if we need further information from you to complete your request. Every effort will be made to provide the information you have requested as soon as possible, and we will aim to keep you updated on our progress.

If your subject access requests relates to social work records then please note that due to data protection legislation, we may not be able to disclose personal information that relates to other people unless we have their permission to do so. You may therefore find that information has been removed when you receive your records. If there are family members you believe are included in your records, you may wish to speak to them and ask if they are willing to consent to us sharing their information with you. This will allow us more flexibility in the amount of information we can share with you. If you would like more information about this then please get in contact with us.

There may be documents from other organisations in the files we hold about you. We may not be able to release the information without that organisation's authority. If this applies, we will provide a list of any third-party organisations that we have not released information from as part of your response. You may wish to contact these organisations to see what information they hold about you.

If you have any questions about the process or wish to discuss any of the information detailed above, please contact us on 01224 070074 or by emailing accesstoinformation@aberdeencity.gov.uk
You can access your account by visiting our [/login/]online services login page.

Kind regards
