Dear reader,

Please find attached the files pertaining to Fraser Stewart alongside our final letter regarding this subject access request.

As per your preference, these will be sent over as attachments to the email(s) you have given. Unfortunately, due to their sizes and our own security restriction, these may come across as multiple emails after this one has been sent.

However, as we are sending these electronically, we cannot take responsibility once these have left our server as we cannot guarantee the security of your email.

Upon receipt of these attachments, we politely request that you send us a courtesy confirmation of receipt.

If we can be of any further help, please feel free to reach out to myself or Theresa (theresa.stewart@dundeecity.gov.uk)

Best,

Alec Donnelly

Dear sir/madam,

Your files are now ready to be sent to yourselves. I do see that in your request that you ask that service of documents be provided to this email; however, I just want to confirm this with yourselves first.

As a reminder, we cannot take responsibility of the security of the files once they have left our server(s), therefore can you confirm that your email is secure.

Upon your reply, I will send the documents out via your preferred choice.

Best,

Alec
