Overview

Behaviour / Conduct :

Lewis can behave very well and has indeed shown his ability to conduct himself in an appropriate manner as he goes about his daily business at Kibble. Lewis has had some difficulty in controlling himself from time to time but has improved since spending more time at the 'Leavers College'.

Application to Task :

Lewis is rarely at his best while at academic tasks in the classroom, however he applies himself well in the more practical and academic challenges set in the Leavers College at Kibble and has justified his position there with his efforts.

Personal & Social Skills :

Lewis has developed a good range of personal and social skills and enjoys good relationships with both his peers and staff at Kibble. He can be both polite and well mannered.
