Dear Investigations Team

I refer to your request for information which was received on 28/04/2026. We have dealt with your request in accordance with Article 15 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We understand that your request is due on 26/06/2026. However, unfortunately we are unable to meet this deadline. This delay is due to awaiting information back from the adoptions team. We will need time to review your request. As well as due to unprecedented demand for this service, for which we have taken measures to ensure we can respond to all requests in the order we received them.

We apologise for the delay in sending you the information you requested, and we understand this may be disappointing. We want you to know we are working on it, and endeavouring to get you our response as soon as we can.

If you have any questions or concerns about how we have dealt with your request, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

If you would like to know more about data protection, or your information rights in general, the Information Commissioner's Office is responsible for promoting and enforcing the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018. And can also provide general advice regarding your information rights. In addition to the information online at www.ico.org.uk, they also have a telephone helpline, 0303 123 1113, which is charged at a local rate.

Yours sincerely
