NOTES John Harris, Assistant Area Reporter

A children's hearing is a group of three people specially selected for their interest and concern in understanding and helping children who are in trouble. They meet to discuss with a child and his parents any difficulties that may have arisen, to discover the reasons for these difficulties and to find an answer which is in the best interest of the child. In some cases this may involve placing the child under compulsory supervision or even removal from home. Further information on the hearing is set out in the leaflet which has been written for your child entitled 'To tell you about the Children's Hearing' a copy of which accompanies this notification.

When they are considering the case of your child the children's hearing will want to find out your views and you may, if you wish, bring with you to the hearing someone to help you in discussing your child's difficulties and what might be done. The personal expenses of this representative (but not any fees) may be refunded if they are not less than fifteen pence (15p).

Your own personal expenses (but not any loss of earnings) in coming to the hearing may be refunded if those expenses (together with any expenses of your child and [wife] [husband] in coming to the hearing) are not less than fifteen pence (15p).

If you do not attend the hearing, you may be liable to a fine of not more than £50. If there is a very good reason, such as illness, why you will be unable to attend the hearing, you should contact the Reporter immediately at

SOCIAL WORK (SCOTLAND) ACT 1968

1 Colin McSwegan, (29.11.79.)
110 Kilmun Street, Glasgow.

is being referred to a children's hearing for Strathclyde Region on the grounds of the following conditions: that an offence mentioned in paragraph (c) of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975 has been committed in respect of a child who is a member of the same household, namely, that a person who has attained the age of 16 years and had the custody, charge or care of a child did wilfully neglect her in a manner likely to cause her unnecessary suffering or injury to health, contrary to Section 12 of the Children and Young Persons (Scotland) Act 1937, being grounds of referral in terms of Section 32(2) (d) of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 as amended by paragraph 54 of Schedule 3 to the Children Act 1975, established at Glasgow Sheriff Court on 7 July 1982.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In support of the above conditions, it is stated:-

- 1) That the said Colin McSwegan, who was born on 29 November, 1979, normally resides in family with his mother Violet McSwegan and his sister Nadia McSwegan, a child of four years, at 110 Kilmun Street, Glasgow.
- 2) That at all material times the said Violet McSwegan, being a person over the age of 16 years, hereinafter referred to as the parent, had custody, charge or care of the said child Nadia McSwegan.
- 3) That on 2 June 1982, the parent wilfully neglected the said child Nadia McSwegan in a manner likely to cause the child unnecessary suffering or injury to health and in particular:
 - a) the parent left the said child Nadia McSwegan in the family home while not in the care of a responsible adult;
 - b) the parent failed to provide adequate food for the said child Nadia McSwegan.
 - 2 c) the family home was in a filthy condition.

NOTES

At the children's hearing the child or his parents may or may not accept the grounds for bringing the child before the hearing. If the grounds are accepted by the child, and his parents, if present, the children's hearing will discuss and consider with the child and his parents what is best for the child. If any of the grounds are not accepted, the hearing may either discharge the referral or direct the reporter to refer to the sheriff for a decision as to whether or not any of the grounds exist. If this happens the child will have to appear before the sheriff at a later date. If the sheriff decides that any of the grounds do exist, the children's hearing will then discuss and consider what is best for the child, as if these grounds had been accepted. If the sheriff decides that no ground exist the referral will be discharged.

Decision:—

Bounds → PROOF: warrant to detain issued.

Statement of reasons for decision:—

Re grounds were accepted by the parents with the exception of paras 3(b) + (c). In view of the seriousness of the allegations and on the recommendation of the social worker, bearing in mind the previous history of the family, a warrant to detain the child was issued.

Re grounds were agreed for proof both in relation to the disputed paras, and because the child was too young to understand.

Chairman
