Good afternoon,

Thank you for your previous email; we note its contents.

Could you kindly provide us with an update as to providing us with our client's records. We note that you requested an extension which was due on the 22/07/2026.

We have not received any further correspondence from you in relation to this matter. We expect that you should now be in a position to provide a full response.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James

Good afternoon,

As you will be aware, we sent our Clients DSAR on 21st of April 2026, and a response was due on or before 21st May 2026.

We to date have not received any response/acknowledgement and are now chasing the same.

Can you please confirm as a matter of urgency that the DSAR sent on 21st of April 2026 was acknowledged and processed accordingly under Article 15 of the Data Protection Act 2018 or if the DSAR is now legally overdue and your establishment has failed to comply.

Should you be in breach of Article 15 of the Data Protection Act 2018, can you please provide us with your internal complaints process.

Should we not hear from you within 14 days from the date of this communication, we will have no option but to escalate the matter to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Given the nature and sensitivity surrounding our client's request, we would prefer to work with you rather than against and request that we both have our client's best interests in mind.

We look forward to your response.

Kind regards,

James
