Good afternoon,

We are contacting you today in relation to the above reference for a Subject Access Request made on behalf of our client.

We sent a Subject Access Request on the 15th of June 2026, to which had a statutory deadline of one calendar month. We haven't received any further correspondence from you in relation to this.

Could you kindly provide us with an update as to your current position as to providing us with our client's records.

If you require any further information, don't hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James
