Dear Colleague,

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I am writing to you regarding your email making a request for the personal information of your client, James Mclean.

The Scottish Government do not hold all files in relation to all schools and residential homes and as a result of our searches, I can confirm that we have been unable to locate any documentation based on the information that has been provided.

I appreciate that this will be disappointing for your client. However, National Records Scotland will respond to you directly to inform you of the results of the search of their records and may be also in the position to provide details of other public bodies who may hold information relating to your request.

If your client is not happy with this outcome and they wish to make a complaint, please contact the Scottish Government's Data Protection Officer in the first instance

Dear Colleague,

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I refer to your letter to National Records Scotland requesting a search of records in relation to your client, James McLean.

We have received your request to the Information Assurance and Data Protection team at the Scottish Government to enable a search of records held by the Directorate for Children and Families to be conducted.

All personal information will be accessible to you unless that information is covered by an exemption under data protection laws. In carrying out your request information will be shared with relevant business areas where necessary to ensure a complete return.

The one calendar month period allowed for response to your request will expire on 21/05/2026.

Kind regards,
Charlene
