We're writing to let you know that Andrew McCleave has listed you as a person they care for in their application for Carer Support Payment. This means we've had to check whether you get certain benefits so that we can process Andrew's application.

This letter is not a confirmation that Andrew McCleave will get, or is already getting, Carer Support Payment.

What Carer Support Payment is

Carer Support Payment is a weekly payment for carers who live in Scotland. This is in recognition of the important work they do as a carer.
